Start Finish

The adventurous way south out of Nan. Ride down Road 1026 through Na Noi to Na Muen, then take Road 1339, a run of tight hairpins down to the fishing village of Pak Nai on the Sirikit reservoir. A small vehicle ferry, pulled across by a boat, carries bikes over the water; expect to wait, sometimes a couple of hours, and take care on the loose gravel at the landings. On the far side the road winds on through the hills to Nam Pat. Check locally that the ferry is running before you commit.

Fuel stops Wiang Sa, Na Noi and Na Muen, then Nam Pat. Nothing between Na Muen and the far shore.

Water crossings None
