Start Finish

A flat, easy day between the two capitals of the first Thai kingdom. Start among the ruins of Sukhothai Historical Park, then ride north through rice fields and sugar cane to Si Satchanalai, its quieter sister city on the Yom River, where the temples sit in forest and you can often have them to yourself. Come back through Sawankhalok, known for its old ceramic kilns. Both parks charge an entrance fee, and the lowlands are hot from March onward.

Fuel stops Sukhothai, Sawankhalok and Si Satchanalai.
